

Alfred Century Bicycle Tour

The Re-enactment of a September 1895 Bicycle Century (100-mile tour)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 2010

8:00 A.M. until ??

Tour begins and ends at Almond Municipal Building, Almond, N.Y. (I-86 Exit 33)

REGISTRATION: Beginning at 7:00 A.M. at Almond Municipal Building

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Retracing the original 1895 Century route, the route is entirely paved. The course goes through Scio, Belmont, Friendship and Cuba to Olean and back, follows rivers, streams, railroad tracks and a deserted canal bed. The course will be marked and include turn-arounds for 50 miles and 25 miles. Participants will be given a course map and directions.

REST STOPS: Olean Wholesale Grocery Co-Op, Inc. is the 100-mile turnaround location. Bikers can make rest stops at convenient stores located along the route in Scio, Belmont, Friendship and Cuba.

FEES: Cost to participate is $20.00. Proceeds will benefit Genesee Valley Habitat for Humanity and the Alfred University campus chapter of Habitat for Humanity in their efforts to build simple, decent, affordable houses in partnership with those who lack adequate shelter.

What previous participants had to say about the Alfred Century Bicycle Tour

“A Very Enjoyable Ride”

“...the course you have is great for those who want to set a personal best record, first-timers, or anyone who just wants to have a very enjoyable ride that happens to be 100 miles long.”

“A Great Course”

“It was fantastic! It was great to have the rest stops along the way...it was a great course and a beautiful day!”

“A Beautiful Route”

“...a beautiful route, the scenery was beautiful, with nice people at the stops”

“We broke the rules” (for 1895)

“We broke most of the 1895 Surgeon’s Rules for Cyclists... by riding over 10 miles an hour and taking fluids into our stomachs...but at least no riders were seen to ‘smoke while riding’.”
